

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

VOL. XXV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1896.

NO. 22

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY CO.

—Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Yates have a little daughter at their house.

—Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Steele, of Hustonville, are visiting Col. Thom. O'Mara and family.

—Rev. Olinger, of the Congregational church, has gone to Kansas to assist in some meetings.

—The cantata, "Jephtha and his Daughter," will be given by the young people of the M. E. church May 25.

—The Williamsburg Institute will have field day May 26, at which time they will give a very interesting program.

—The weather is dry here now and crops are suffering very much. Unless rain comes soon the small grain and meadows will be a failure.

—Mr. A. D. Mayo, of Washington, D. C., will deliver a series of lectures on educational subjects, beginning Thursday night. He comes highly recommended as a speaker.

—The mine operators and miners have made a settlement and both sides have signed contracts for another year. This will most probably prevent any strikes for the coming year.

—The ladies of the Christian church gave an ice cream supper Wednesday evening to raise money to assist in repairing their church, which is being generally repaired and will be quite a handsome building when completed.

—Mrs. S. Standl has gone to Springfield to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. T. C. Noe. Miss Ida Hunschelder and Mrs. Hall, of Middleburg, are here visiting their sister, Mrs. Will Jones. Sheriff Bennett, who has been quite sick with the fever, is improving rapidly.

—Circuit court met Monday morning, with Judge Morrow on the bench and a large crowd present to see, hear and attend to business. The jury was immediately empaneled and went to work on a full list of prisoners. All the time was being consumed in trying the criminal docket, as there are several cases of considerable length to try. The first two days were taken up with misdemeanor cases and the more important cases have just begun to be heard for hearing.

—Last Friday night Lafayette Moore and — McFarland went to the house of Samuel Karr, near the mouth of Laurel river, and called him out, it is said, to whip him and make him move off of a piece of land, but Karr came out with his gun and a shooting took place, in which Moore shot Karr with a shot gun. The wounds were slight, however, and he was able to appear before the grand jury Monday. McFarland has been arrested but Moore has not.

MAINTENANCE

—P. W. Green is having out buildings treated to a coat of new paint.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Speed are visiting the family of Stanton McKinney.

—No rain yet. Farmers are delayed very much on account of the dry weather.

—There will be an excursion over the C. & S. Sunday, $1.25 round-trip from here to Cincinnati.

—A wagon load of fishermen left here Tuesday for Lakeview, where they will remain a few days fishing.

—The young people are making great preparations for the party to be given by Joe Givens Thursday night.

—Barnum Smith, who has been sick for the last two weeks, is again out in very poor health. Miss Mary Lyons is on the sick list.

—George A. Ford, who has been threatened with blood poison from a cut on the hand, is slowly improving. Mr. K. L. Tanner went to Liberty the first of the week, where he is staying a new residence built by Mr. M. V. Owens, of Junction City, is visiting his son-in-law, Ed. Tanner.

—George H. Jackson, the negro who claims to have driven Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling to Ft. Thomas, on the night that Pearl Bryan was murdered, is turning his notoriety to profit. He is on exhibition in a Cincinnati museum, repeating the story of the drive to a glib public.

—The Georgia supreme court has reversed a decision against Seventh Day Adventists, who were fined for working on Sunday.

A Household Treasure

Dr. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family would not be without it. He says, "G. A. Dyckman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best remedy for rheumatism, that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has cured him of it. Why not try a remedy on long tried and tested. Trial bottle free at W. B. McKee's Drug Store, Regular size 50c and 75c."

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liverman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with this most painful rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him."

LANCASTER, HARRARD COUNTY.

—The Leap Year at 1 o'clock of last Friday evening with Mr. L. I. Walker. — Marriage licenses were granted to Alvin Hunschelder and to Miss Ada Ely, both of this vicinity.

—Miss Edna Lusk will entertain the scholars under her charge with a picnic to-morrow at the river.

—Garrard's coffee planter, Mr. Jacob Newland, has seen his annual crop and is expecting an abundant yield.

—An important dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hardin in honor of their visitors, the Misses Turpin, of Richmond.

—The farmers report corn in a flourishing condition but the drought has injured the oats, wheat crops and meadows seriously.

—Quite a number of our business houses and residences are being improved by fresh coats of paint. Much white washing is being done.

—Mr. E. H. Ray, son of Dr. Wm. Ray, of Buckeye, has received from Gov. Bradley an appointment to a position under the State in the Frankfort chair factory at a salary of $95 per month.

—Decoration Day, 30th, will again be observed here. A large crowd, good music, addresses by the K. P., bicycle and fox races will fill the day's program. Visitors are invited and will be most cordially received.

—The Presbyterian Miss Society will meet with Mrs. D. M. Lackey Tuesday afternoon. The Bible Reading Circle will meet Friday with Mrs. Thomas Whornt and the Ladies Aid Society Saturday afternoon with Mrs. R. E. McRoberts.

—Cesar Weaver, reported in your last being seriously wounded in an affray at Winchester, was not hurt, but shot Case in the neck. Weaver is a Garrard county man and a cousin of Rev. Bradley. He gave himself up and was released on a $200 bond.

—News has been received that J. R. Young, Jr., aged 14 years, was killed by a train at Phoenix, Ariz. His father is C. J. Young, Indian agent at that place, and his mother is a daughter of Hon. H. W. Anderson, of Garrard.

—Dennis Brown, of color, is supposed to be the oldest living resident of Lancaster. "Uncle Dennis" is in his 90th year and occasionally comes to Main street from Lexington and talks of the long ago. He can remember when Central Park was covered with trees and presented the appearance of a forest.

—N. B. Turpin, of Richmond, was a visitor in Lancaster on Wednesday. Miss Sarah Croley, of Lexington, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anne B. Hopper. Mrs. D. S. Givens visited friends in Danville this week. Miss Nina Atkinson, of Henderson, arrived Wednesday on a visit to her cousin, Miss Margaret Mason. Mrs. W. H. Dunlap, of Lexington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Adaline Landrum. George Dunn, of Danville, was a visitor in Lancaster Wednesday. Miss Nellie Dillon is the guest of Stanford relatives. Miss Pearl Ashby is visiting her niece Mr. P. R. Parrott, of Lexington. M. A. Ebb, of Cincinnati, was visiting Lancaster friends this week. Mr. Josh Adams, of Boyle, was here Wednesday. Mrs. Emma Kaufman and son, Clay, are visiting Mrs. Alice Lusk in Hustonville. Miss Mary Deores is the guest of friends in Paint Lick. Mrs. Raymond Haselton, of visiting friends in Louisville.

—A young lady of an adjoining town recently invited a number of young society people of this city to spend an evening with her. Before the time arrived she received a note, telling her it did not suit them to come, neither and they wish to accept her invitation. The note had no signature. It was intended to cause a misunderstanding between the young lady and her friends and deprive them of a pleasant social evening. This time such an attempt was foiled for the young lady immediately wrote to one of her friends and soon learned the falsity of the whole affair. Anonymous letter-writers are no unusual miscreants, but the mere fact that such communications have no signatures proves such slander and deception on the bare face of them, that it is astonishing they are ever believed for a moment. Let all who receive such notes as this young lady follow her example and thereby always bring to naught the plots and schemes of such cowardly evil doers.

ATTRACTIVE WOMEN

Why is one woman attractive and another not? The most admirable and attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Everybody admires a womanly woman. She must have health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fullness of her cheeks, her vivacity. Real health must mean that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way, as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing the duties of maternity. Some are born with what is called "constitutional weakness." Those who do not enjoy perfect health need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly well and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism.

Send 2 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's "Good" page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," illustrated.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine every family should be provided with. LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—The first strawberries of the season have made their appearance and are selling at a good price.

—Mrs. John Pearl and children, of Fariston, visited relatives in town last week. Mr. Sam Deubart will leave for Somerset in a few days to take a position with his uncle, Green Litton. We wish him success. Mrs. Edward Parker had the misfortune to be hooked by her cow Sunday evening, inflicting a painful but not serious wound.

The first ceremony introductory to the building of the College took place on the proposed site of the building and was known as "first breaking." Quite a crowd assembled to witness the ceremony. A short address was delivered by Elder Hall in his usual eloquent style, after which the crowd was photographed by Mr. Oge.

—Elder L. C. Hall, of Barren county, assisted by Elder J. W. Masters, is conducting a series of meetings at the Christian church. Elder Hall is one of the most eloquent speakers ever in this county. He handles his subjects with ease and deep thought and by his eloquence holds his audience spell-bound. The attendance is very large and the best of attention is maintained and great interest manifested. While he presents the truth very plainly, his manner is so mild that even the most eccentric can not take offense. There have been but 4 or 5 additions, but no one who hears him can fail to be bettered.

—"Prof." Fowler, a trustee in the Farmers' Supply Store, undertook to work his game on the First National Bank and also on Farris & Co. But it didn't work and he is now in jail awaiting trial before the circuit judge. He had been here but a short time. He went to Farris & Co.'s store and after selecting merchandise to the amount of $24, asked if an order on Mr. McClear would be good, and being told that it would, he went out and returned with an order of $25.50. Being told his goods amounted to $21, he left, saying he would leave them until later in the day, when he would call for them and bring the balance, 50 cents. He then went to the bank with a check on Mr. McClear for the same amount. Mr. R. M. Jackson, the vigilant cashier, who is not very apt to be caught by confidence men, at once suspected something wrong and took the check to Mr. McClear and asked him if it was genuine. Upon finding that it was not, he had the young gentleman arrested. He was tried and placed under $1,000 bond in each case, which he failed to give. He is quite likely to spend a few years at Frankfort.

—Lincoln County's Hospitality on Trial.

On Saturday of this week Central University will hold its annual Spring outing in the town of Stanford. They will bring three fully equipped military companies, which will give a competitive drill. About 120 students and their lady friends will compose the party. In the afternoon there will be a ball game between the College nine and our home boys.

Lincoln county people should feel complimented that one of the foremost educational institutions of the South has selected this as the place for its annual outing and should have no stone unturned to make the day's entertainment a grand success.

The young ladies of the county who constitute the committee on entertainment request that you and friends be present and contribute as liberally as you can to the picnic dinner, which will be spread for the entertainment of our home people and the visitors. The day must and will be made a grand success; you are expected to contribute to its success. Very respectfully,

COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT.

A WORD TO AND ABOUT COURT-DAY HOODLUMS.—The number of drunken rowdies on Church street court day was past numbering. The air is yet resounding with their oaths and the sulphurous color of their faces perceptible. About 25 of the finest ladies and children in the world live in hearing and the thing must be stopped. A gentleman is one at all times. If some of the court-day crowd don't watch they will find themselves in the front vehicle of very short funeral processions. Bro. O. J. Newland and myself will kill about half a dozen of them, join the A. P. A.'s and receive an instantaneous pardon from Gov. Bradley, who has let 127 of his presumptive friends out of the penitentiary.

J. F. W.

—Eli Bowling shot and killed his brother, Howell Bowling, on Big Creek in Clay county, at the home of another brother, Levi Bowling. Howell was drunk and fired a pistol in the house, when Eli took a shot gun and blew his brains out.

—The Louisville Times publishes the list which shows that up to May 1, Gov. W. O. Bradley has granted 127 pardons, remissions, etc. Of this number a few are restorations to citizenship after the expiration of the term of imprisonment.

LEWIS NOTES ON A TRIP TO ATLANTA.

—If one wants to learn to really and truly appreciate Kentucky let him take a trip to Atlanta, as I did this week. Notwithstanding the drought we have had for the past month and a half the blue-grass section of "Old Kentucky" looks like a veritable Garden of Eden compared with those portions of Tennessee and Georgia I went through. In fact the poorest, meanest-looking country my eye have rested on for many a day is that traversed by the Q. & C. in Tennessee and the Southern Railroad in Georgia, and how the people make a living is a mystery to me. They live though and seem to be about as well contented as those whose lines have fallen in better places.

The boom towns along the line show the effect of hard times and in some of the places, where real estate sold at almost fabulous prices a few years ago, it can now be had for the asking. A man who got on the train at Spring City, Tenn., told me that he was living in an eight room brick house that had been presented to him by a New Yorker, who thought it an investment, but gave it to him rather than pay taxes on it. Harrison and Rockwood seem to be sleeping the sleep that knows no waking, while Boyce and Sherman Heights look like things of the past.

Christianoga got a steady and healthful growth and to-day is a splendid city. There are few places of her size that can boast of such magnificent business houses and her resident portion compares favorably with much larger cities. Her streets, most of which are asphalt, are a credit to her, and the amount of business done over there is surprising.

Georgia has most of her land in cotton, which is about two inches high. Her soil is better adapted to that crop, than any other, but it looks too thin to bring even much of that. The Georgians are hard workers though and they will get all out of their land possible. The women are sure enough housewives and it is no uncommon sight to see a wife hoeing a row of cotton along side of her husband.

Atlanta has been written about so much in these columns that I am almost ashamed to ask further indulgence from our readers on that subject. She is an inexhaustible subject though and is as far ahead of most of the Southern cities as Stanford is of her sister towns. In fact she should be classed with the metropolises of the West and East rather than the slow, poke, easy Southern cities. Her people resemble the Yankees of the North in push and go-ahead-iveness, but I am glad to say they are very different socially and otherwise. They are business from the word go, which is proven by the rapid growth Atlanta has made.

Since I was there three years ago Atlanta has added several thousand inhabitants and the appearance of the city has been materially improved. Handsome buildings have taken the place of some that were not so imposing and to-day no city of its size presents a more substantial appearance than the Gate City of the South. No more elegant homes can be found than those on Peachtree street. Atlanta people enjoy living and think nothing is too good for them.

The old building that was used when the capital was moved from Milledgeville to Atlanta has been torn down and a 10 story brick to be used as a city hall is rapidly going up. It will be an immense affair and will be second to no building in the South.

The Gate City is somewhat infested just now with free-liveries and salvation armies, but they no doubt think they are doing good for the country and are to some extent excusable. Aside from the money question very little attention is devoted to politics and for that reason Atlanta is a good place to live.

In my humble estimation the Georgia girl comes nearer rivaling the beautiful women found in Kentucky than any I have ever seen. She has the prettiest black eye imaginable, is lovely of face and figure, has a smile that is bewitching beyond description and is as stately as a queen. In short she is modern Cleopatra. I wish our readers could have seen a pair of Georgia beauties I had the pleasure of looking on the other day. It would have dispelled from their minds as it did mine the unpleasant but absorbing thought of hard times.

Atlanta will soon lose two noted divines. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne goes to a pastorate in Nashville and Dr. Strickler has accepted a chair in a Georgia College. E. C. W.

—Down at Cloverport last week a fellow caught a large fish, which, when cut open was found to contain in its stomach a pocket-book, testament and hymn book. The pedigree of the fish is not furnished.

How to Treat a Wife.—First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do her more good than all the clouds of gloom. To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health.—Pacific Health Journal.

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 15, 1896

W. P. WALTON.

The editor of this paper is both surprised and gratified at the mark of esteem manifested by Gov. Bradley in appointing him to be one of the trustees, as will be seen in another column, of the $100,000 school of reform, which the last Legislature directed to be built. As the law requires that there shall be two democrats in the board, we do not suppose any objection can be raised to our accepting the position. If there is, it is all the same, for we have accepted it and sent the renewed expressions of distinguished consideration. For many years we have held Gov. Bradley in high, personal esteem and the appointment is the more gratifying as proof that this esteem is not entirely one-sided. Upon the trustees will devolve the selection of a site for the Reformatory and its supervision, there being more honor and work than emoluments attached to the office, however. It may be that we can get it located at Stanford and if no other locality can put up a better claim, we shall use our best endeavors to that end.

Some of the sound money papers, scared by the entry of John B. Thompson in the Congressional race, are calling on Owsley and Force to settle it between themselves which shall continue the fight and beat Thompson, which they say can be done no other way. If the latter proposition were true, patriotism might demand that the one or the other withdraw, but we see no reason to become alarmed. If promises go for anything, Mr. Owsley has the nomination won and if nominated is sure to win the final race. We have got piles of good money to bet that he can carry this county over Davidson, if he is nominated by the republicans, or any other man they may put up.

A more intensely partisan and unfriendly sub-committee could not have been named than the republicans appointed after voting to investigate the bond issue. It is made up of Harris, Vest, Walthall, Jones, of Nevada, and Platt. The three democrats, comprising a majority of the committee, are all extreme silver men. Jones is a populist and Platt the sole republican. The whole thing seems to be an effort of the republican finance committee to shirk responsibility by turning it over to the free silver democrats and populists.

It was decided by the committee, which met at Paris Wednesday, that unless Judge Pryor has opposition he will be declared the nominee of the democratic party for appellate judge for this district, June 10, otherwise precinct conventions will be held on the 20th and the district convention at Richmond. There is as yet no other candidate and there should not be. Judge Pryor deserves to be re-elected as long as he will have the office he has filled with such signal ability.

BLACKBURN got in his revenge at Washington this week. Some time ago, T. J. Glenn was appointed postmaster at Carlisle and simply because he is an administration democrat and opposed to the Senator's free silver fanaticism, he used the "Senatorial courtesy" power to secure an adverse report on his confirmation. A very small man can our senior Senator be when he's a mind to and bat's often.

It seems to have been decided on by the republicans to give Kendall's seat in Congress to the one-horse preacher Hopkins, and it is more than likely that Owens will have to give way to the two-horse lawyer, Denny. Neither of them has any sort of claim on the seat, but their votes will be needed in case the election of president is thrown in the House, and the odds never stand on a small thing like that.

JACKSON's neck is to stretch for the murder of poor Pearl Bryan; that is the jury at Newport found him guilty of her murder and fixed his punishment at death, we learn from a dispatch received last evening. There's several chances for him yet, however, and the country won't breathe freely, until he drops with a dull thud for the commission of the foulest crime of the century.

CALIFORNIA declared for the Ohio stranglebug and free silver. Numberless attempts have been made to get McKinley to express himself on the currency question, but he maintains a sphinxlike silence that means anything but golden. He is out for votes and is not expressing views just now.

THE Lexington Herald and Leader have pooled their force and bought the most improved type setting machines, the one being them at night, the other during the day. It will prove a big saving and Proprietors S. G. Boyle and S. J. Roberts are to be congratulated.

R. M. JACKSON, of London, has announced his candidacy for delegate to the Chicago convention from the 11th district. He is for sound money and a mighty sound man.

The democratic committee of the Tenth Congressional district has called a convention for Beattyville, June 18, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

Pursuant to the action of the Democratic State Executive Committee, as chairman of the Lincoln county executive committee, notice is given for the democrats of Lincoln county to assemble at the court-house in Stanford, Ky., in mass meeting on the 30th day of May, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m., solar time, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the State convention, called to meet at Lexington, Ky., at 2 o'clock p. m. on the 3rd day of June, next. Lincoln county is entitled to eight (8) delegates to said convention. R. C. WARREN, Chairman. Stanford, May 12, '96.

POLITICAL POINTS.

—McKinley carried West Virginia yesterday with a whoop.
—The populists have decided to hold their State convention at Paducah, July 20.
—Gov. Matthews, of Indiana, who imagines he is a presidential quantity, has declared straight out for free silver.
—There was almost a riot before delegates were admitted to the republican State convention at St. Joseph, Mo.
—Judge R. J. Breckinridge and Robert Harding, of Danville, will speak at Lancaster next Monday for free silver.
—It is reported that President Cleveland has written a letter to Don Dickenson saying he would decline a renomination.
—Senator Hill in a speech the other day referred to Senator Quay as "the recent candidate for president." "The Senator is very unkind," retorted Quay. "I should think a fellow feeling would keep him from making such remarks as that."

—Some of our Kentucky contemporaries are taking too seriously Mr. Wat Hardin's oratory on the silver question. Bless you boys, Wat's oratory is harmless. Not only that, but it is refreshing in these days of dronch to find such an oasis of picturesque ignorance.—Courier-Journal.

—The sound money men of Mercer organized Monday by electing F. D. Spotswood, editor of the Democrat chairman, and appointing committees for each voting precinct to do the necessary preparatory work to carry the county convention on May 30 in the interest of sound money and Carlisle.

—In his speech at Harrodsburg Monday, John B. Thompson said he was a bimetalist and opposed to the single gold standard and opposed to the national banking system and civil service reform as at present promulgated and practiced. He further said he would support the nominee of the National democratic convention no matter who he may be nor on what platform.

—The editor of this paper is in receipt of the following: The governor has appointed the following trustees for the House of Reform: Mrs. Nellie G. Cheatham, Louisville, and W. P. Walton, of Stanford, for six years. Mrs. Louisa E. Vandell, of Louisville, and B. T. Conway of Lebanon, for four years. Mrs. Sophia A. Chiles, of Lexington, and Ben H. Howard, of Lebanon, for two years. I enclose your commission. Yours very truly, E. D. Duffy, sec'y. State.

SOMEWHAT LOCAL.

—The county levy in Madison was fixed at 30 1/2 cents.
—In Harlan county Noah Taylor shot and seriously injured Dan Smith.
—Irvine was visited by a $10,000 fire. Four houses were destroyed and two others were damaged.
—Mrs. C. W. Woodbury, widow of a United States army officer, died at Middletown as the result of an injury sustained in an accident.

—The University of Cincinnati will cross bats with the Centre College baseball team at Danville today and tomorrow and great games are expected.
—Jackson and Zion Cornelius were convicted in the Jackson circuit court of the murder of Christopher Jones, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

—News has reached Mt. Vernon of the dangerous wounding of John Anglin on Clear creek, that county, by his daughter, Mrs. Young. A razor was used and he was badly cut five times.
—At Ottawa, Ill., Jas. McGuire stabbed his wife 21 times and then plunged the knife into his own breast five times. The woman was literally hacked to pieces. Jealousy was the cause of the act.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer contains a picture of Miss Sarah Cecil and highly complimentary mention of her in a New York dispatch, which says she spent much of her time in the metropolis, where she has many friends who regret her misfortune. Her trouble with Mary Anderson was long and bitter. Miss Anderson's friends claimed that Miss Cecil was in love with a prominent theatrical man whom she thought the actress was endeavoring to win away from her. Miss Cecil's hallucination about the Jesuits grows out of her antipathy for Miss Anderson, who is a devout Catholic.

NEWS NOTES.

—A statue of Gen. Winfield S. Hancock was unveiled at Washington.
—John J. Wallace and three sons were struck by lightning in Trigg county and killed.
—While out bicycling at Lexington Miss Maesie Todd attempted to cross the track in front of an electric car. She miscalculated the distance, and the car struck her wheel. She fell under the motor and was crushed to death.

—James Nonkervis was blown from a scaffold 65 feet high at Indianapolis by the high wind and killed.

—The Standard Oil Company is leasing land in Adair county, and preparing to sink three oil wells.

—Another one of the five Lyons babies is dead at Mayfield. Three are still living and apparently healthy.

—Plans were perfected at St. Louis for the amputation of six great railroad brotherhoods. The A. R. U. was denied admission.

—At Russell, Breathitt, county, Dan Sid Davis, wealthy and well-known, was shot and killed by O. J. Burnett, a clerk in Day Bros' store.

—At Hinton, Ind., Frank Pierce led a party to charivari his newly-wedded brother, Walter Pierce. Walter fired on the crowd and Frank was killed.

—Dr. Salmon, aged 106 years, the oldest Mason in the world, died in London. We don't suppose any one will dispute the Masonic honor with him.

—John R. Alexander was fatally shot by John Steers at Paris. Alexander had apologized to Steers for his part in an early morning altercation and the pistol ball was his reward.

—A man named Hamilton, who was known as a revenue informer, was found dead in Pike county with several bullet holes in his body. He was killed presumably by moonshiners.

—In one day in Florida three men were killed in a fight over a woman, a boy slew a man who was brutally beating his father and white caps whipped and fatally injured two people.

—John C. Tarsney, of Muscogee, who was unseated in the House at the present session of Congress, was nominated by President Cleveland to be associate justice of the Oklahoma supreme court.

—Eight lives were lost by the explosion of the boilers of the tow-boat Harry Brown, about 25 miles below Vicksburg. One of the killed was William Fitzmorris, of Louisville. The boat was entirely destroyed.

—A Florida negro, protecting his 14-year-old son from a mob, killed two men, fatally wounded another and seriously wounded a fourth. A mob is now pursuing the negro and his son, having first burned his house.

—A. J. Specker, the president of the defunct German-American Title Company, Louisville, which made an assignment for $300,000, and whose affairs were found to be in such a muddled condition, has skipped out, leaving assassination.

—The river and harbor appropriation bill was passed by the Senate after an unusual stormy experience, lasting many days. It makes direct appropriations of $12,300,000, and authorizes continuing contracts of $14,000,000, an aggregate of about $26,000,000.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Wilmington, N. C., was selected as the place of the next meeting of the Southern Baptist convention.

—The annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School association will be held at Owensboro August 25-27.

—Dr. E. M. Green, of Danville, and Rev. S. M. Logan, of this place, will exchange pulpits Sunday morning and night.

—Judge J. M. Barnett, aged 78, was baptized in Buck creek last Sunday, says the Paragon, and joined the Methodist church.

—Rev. L. M. Lasley returned yesterday from Little Rock and North Middletown, where he has been holding meetings, resulting in 27 conversions and sanctifications at the former and 19 at the latter.

—The resolution before the Southern Baptist convention aimed at the Rev. W. H. Whitsitt, president of the Baptist Theological Seminary, fell flat, a committee reporting that the convention could not control the election of members of the faculty.

—At the breaking of ground for the Sue Bennett Memorial School at London Monday afternoon the first shovelful was removed by Mrs. Lucy Williams with a new shovel purchased for the occasion by Col. R. M. Jackson. Short addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hall, Judge J. W. Alcorn, James D. Smith, Supt. B. F. Johnson, Prof. Sherman and others.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—On the eve of her proposed marriage with Perry Marrows, Mrs. Lou Lane-downe, of Preston, eloped and was wedded to Sam Atchinson, of Owingsville.

—Samuel D. Rothwell (not our friend "Big Injun" of Lancaster,) and Miss Annie Benedict, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Constable T. J. Benedict, were married at the bride's home in Rowland Wednesday. Mr. Rothwell is a clever young farmer, of the Preschereville section.

—After Evangelist J. E. Culpepper had finished preaching at Wilmore Sunday night, Prof. T. W. Shannon, a teacher in Holiness School, Asbury College, and Miss Culpepper, daughter of the evangelist, walked down the aisle, stopped in front of the pulpit and were made husband and wife. The marriage created a great surprise.

—Here's another matrimonial lightning change artist: At Wooster, O., Mrs. Jennie Ranach was granted a divorce in five minutes from Nicholas Ranach and restored to her maiden name, Jennie Berra. Seventeen minutes afterward she wedded Andrew Breyfoose, securing divorce, license and another husband in 22 minutes by the watch.—Hurrah for Tol! The Somerset Paragon says: A. T. Martin, of Lincoln county, who has been here for a few weeks, and Mrs. Mollie O'Conners, widow of the late Mahlon O'Conners, went to Helenwood, Tenn. last Sunday night, and were married Monday morning. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Tom Candler of this city. The groom is a son of the late Mat Martin, who lived near the foot of Hall's Gap, in Lincoln county.

—Col. J. P. Fisher, a wealthy widower of Bradfordville, and Miss Lou Annie Drye, of the West End, drove down from Hustonville yesterday morning and were married in the St. Asaph Hotel parlors by Dr. J. Ballou. Miss Drye is a daughter of Mr. John F. Drye and is a handsome and accomplished lady. After the ceremony they drove to Hustonville, where they will be bedined, after which they will go to Bradfordville and reside.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—German millet seed for sale at B. K. Wearen's.

—Mike Dwyer purchased Ben Eler for $10,000.

—The wool buyers are paying 13c for the best grade.

—M. H. Singleton sold to Gus McCormack a bunch of hogs at 2 1/2c.

—Phil Dwyer bought six yearling Hanover colts from Milton Young for $8,500.

—I will stand two good jacks at $7 to insure living colts. M. S. Bangham.

—B. K. Wearen is headquarters for cultivators, corn planters, harrows, &c. lowest prices.

—Woods & Lynn sold in Cincinnati 53 hogs at 3 1/2c and 27 at 3 3/4c. They also sold a fine butcher stuff at 1 1/2c to 2c.

—William Sullivan has so far this season bought about 25,000 pounds of wool at 13 cents per pound for the best.—Advocate.

—If you want your horse handled either for harness or saddle we will be glad to do it for you. Get our prices before placing your horse. C. L. Crow and King Houston, McKinney.

—Red Squirrel, a yearling colt, said to be one of the best in the State, the property of R. E. Paul, of Columbia, valued at $300, killed himself by becoming frightened and running away, striking a fence and breaking his neck.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Miss J. W. Ruff is quite sick. Mrs. Mary Brown Craig is visiting in Louisville.

George W. Hubbard has accepted a clerkship in Broadhead.

Mr. M. D. Hadden, of Monticello, is with his son, Mark Hurdin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McKINNEY went to Louisville yesterday morning.

Mr. J. B. Logan, who recently sold his farm at Logan, has moved to Nicholasville.

Miss Alice B. Brown, of Garrard, has accepted a position with John P. Morton & Co., Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carter, went to Louisville Wednesday to visit Mr. Hume Logan and wife.

Charles F. Grier has returned from a two months' visit to his sister, Mrs. George P. Taubman, at Newport.

Miss Luc J. Elliott, of the Joseph Price Hospital, is enjoying a much needed rest at her home near Maywood.

Miss Annie Campbell was "at home" to several couples of her young friends last night, who anticipated a royal time.

Mr. Joe Seybaker, Sr., who has been poorly for some time, has gone to Rock Castle Springs for rest and recuperation.

Miss Puss Cravat and Miss Rachel Allison went to Louisville Tuesday to see "The Rivals" played by the great Jefferson.

Mr. Mark Hadden started to Monticello to see his father, but found out at Somerset that he was on his way to visit him, so he returned to find the old man here.

Sheriff T. B. Newland took W. C. Spratt to the Lexington asylum Wednesday. He was very docile and gave the officer no trouble.

Mr. W. T. Merrick, who filling Mr. Mudd's place in the dispatcher's office, was joined yesterday by his pretty little wife and they are guests of the St. Asaph.

Miss Maudie Cochran, daughter of R. L. and Mrs. Jennie Cochran, who have many relatives here, is one of the graduates of the Peabody, Kansas, College this season.

Mr. Moses Collier and Miss Annie Austin, of Lancaster, took the train here yesterday for Bethany, Ill. They were accompanied there by Miss Katie Simpson, of Lancaster.

Dr. Geo. Perkins went to Stanford Monday to be present at the silver wedding of his relative, Mr. James E. Lynn, a prominent citizen of that vicinity.—Somerset Paragon.

J. L. Frohman, of the Globe, was up from Danville with advertisements Wednesday night. He told us that he and 15 others rode to Tatham Springs, 35 miles and back Sunday in about seven hours.

Mr. J. P. Sandifer, of Middleboro, was here yesterday. He says that owing to the fact that the town is on the border of Tennessee, many of its best people voted for license to beat the blind tigers.

R. E. Smith, of Richmond, was here Wednesday advertising the coming of Central University Glee, Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar Club, which will entertain at Walton's Opera House Saturday night.

Bailey Hill, El Peyton, Sam Helm, Dwight Root, Anderson Nunnally, Light, Nunnally, Thelma Wright and Lee Carter, of Lincoln county, passed this way to the Cumberland for a fish.—Somerset Paragon.

Mr. B. T. Conway, of Lebanon, one of the trustees of the prospective State Reformatory, was here Wednesday to see the local trustee with reference to having the institution located at Lebanon, which place has two trustees.

Mr. W. B. Maros, of Lancaster, was over Wednesday to meet Miss Nina Atkinson, of Henderson, who comes to visit his wife. "Kag" tells us that he is making good progress in his race for appellate clerk and will soon take a tour of the State.

Mr. E. C. Walton made the quickest trip to Atlanta, Ga., this week ever accomplished from this section. Hearing that his brother, Mr. T. R. Walton, was ill, he left here Monday night at 11 o'clock and returned at 4:30 Wednesday, bringing Mr. Walton with him, who, we are glad to say, is nearly recovered from a spell of nervous prostration.

Try "Wet" won in Middleboro by a majority of 61, in the hottest fight ever known there.

LADIES.—Protect your gums, cleanse your teeth by using a small tooth brush, sold by Craig & Hocker at 20c.

Lost.—Pair of spectacles No. 30, with Convinton dealer's name on case. Return to Miss Sarah Curtis and get reward.

CITY TAXES.—Six per cent will be added to your city taxes if not paid by June 1. Pay now and save costs. O. J. Newland, collector.

HANDSOME line of Jardinieres and Flower Crocks of all kinds ever brought to this city, just received at Warren & Shanks'.

R. G. Evans, administrator of J. Owsley Evans, deceased, has filed suit for $30,000 damages against the Southern railroad at Versailles.

It's a Boy.—The wife of the editor of this paper presented him with a 10-pound boy yesterday, which she has named William P. Walton, Jr.

Whirls from Bethel Ridge, Casey county, Mr. Silas Wesley, a good friend and patron, says that the dry weather is the sole cause there, where it never was so dry before at this time of year.

While looking well at his residence on the Danville pike, J. L. Totten struck a strong flow of white sulphur water, which he claims will compare with that of the famous White Sulphur Springs of Virginia.

TRAIN No. 6 on the C. & O. will take passengers to Cincinnati and back Sunday for $1.25 from all points from Somerset to Moreland. It passes Kings Mountain at 2:42, McKinney at 2:56 and Moreland at 3:04 a. m.

GOING ON THE ROAD.—Thomas Jefferson Hatcher will start out Monday to sell the Quaker Medicine Co.'s medicine. He has engaged Frank Lewis, an expert banjo player, of Parksville, who will be with him in his travels. Mr. Hatcher says he is a living example of the cure-all properties of the medicine.

A CERTAIN young man of the Highland section, who had tarried too long at the bowl a few days ago, fell by the wayside and slept a few hours in the sun. He woke up very ill and in a short time began to vomit such things as worms with sprouts an inch long on them, worms by the score and so on. He became so alarmed he sought a doctor for advice.

LOW RATE.—Next Sunday the Cincinnati Southern will run an excursion to Cincinnati from Junction City at $1 for the round-trip. Train leaves Junction City at 7 a. m., arriving in Cincinnati at 11:30; returning leaves at 7 p. m. The great game of ball between the Cincinnati and Brooklyn, the Zoological gardens, etc., are the attractions. J. W. Trapp, agent, Junction City.

"WHEN the C. C. cadets went on their annual outing last year," says the Pantagraph "the Paris people attempted to furnish dinner but they miscalculated the eating propensities of the boys, and they came back as hungry as the famous Eighth Kentucky Regiment boys when they reached the top of Lookout Mountain." Forewarned is forearmed and our people will see that none go away feeling that aching void that nothing but victuals can fill.

SINGULAR.—The other night as passenger train, No. 25, passed the Danville Avenue crossing, the engineer saw a horse on the track. It ran ahead of him for some time and then was scared off the track by the whistling. He seems to have been so frightened that he followed the train and fell into a cattle guard back of Col. Hill's. There No. 25 found him at 3:15 a. m. and it took half an hour to dig him out and let the train pass. The horse had on a bridle and saddle and belonged to Eb Lawson.

A. F. F.—Miss Ethyl Beazley entertained Monday evening in honor of the A. F. F. of Lancaster and a number of Stanford friends. Refreshments were served and everything done to contribute to the enjoyment of her guests who are loud in praises of Miss Ethyl's delightful contribution to their happiness. There were present from Lancaster Misses Grace Kinnaird, Altie and Bessie Marksberry, Lizzie and Mattie Thompson, Nannie Harris and Messrs. J. W. Sweeney, C. D. Walker, W. S. Beazley, O. W. Shugars, R. T. Embry, E. G. Brown and W. H. Noel. From Stanford Misses Mary Bruce, Pearl Burnside, Bessie Richards, Lilly Peyton, Clara and Ophelia Lackey, Kate Alcorn, Katie Lee Yeager and Sarah Tomlinson, of Perry, Ga., and Messrs. H. C. Baughman, W. S. Embry, J. G. McRoberts, J. W. Rout, Jr., J. Carroll Bailey, George Dunn, Albert H. Severance and Henry Rowan Saulley.

THREE two-horse and two one-horse cultivators at cost. Farris & Hardin.

We have adopted the spot cash system to every one. No favorites. Danks the Jeweler.

LADIES. If you want the finest goods in Canned Peaches you ever tasted go to Warren & Shanks' Model Grocery.

Try J. H. Baughman & Co.'s cooking conds. They are best and cheapest. Britannicus nut 10c, Canned nut 14c, delivered at your house.

We have turned over all our accounts to W. A. Tribble for collection and you will favor us by an immediate settlement. Hughes & Tate.

Within the next few few days I shall call on you personally for the amount you owe me and shall insist on all accounts being settled. Danks, the Jeweler.

STANFORD has organized a Law and Order League, which means Stanford has determined to make the enforcement of law a matter of business.—Somerset Paragon. We hope so, but fear not. Such things never amount to much, the more's the pity.

EVANS A SHOOTER.—Hearing that Will Evans had been seen at old Dick Evans house, Deputy Sheriff R. M. Newland, Marshal O. J. Newland and Constable T. J. Bennett got up a crowd and went in search of him yesterday morning. John Skidmore was one of the party and seeing the bushes shake not far from him and believing it was one of the party he called out, "Come on let's give up the job." Down instant a bullet whizzed by him and he saw Evans running from him. Mr. Skidmore shot at him several times, but unfortunately missed him, and by the time he got the crowd together to pursue him, the negro was both out of sight and touch. In fact the bushes where he was seen are so thick that you can hardly see a half dozen steps away.

HUNG JURY.—The hardy case of Miss Kate Cook against Frank Spommore was tried before Judge W. L. Dawson and a jury Tuesday, which after occupying all day resulted in a mistrial, the jury standing eight for the girl and four for the boy. The plaintiff, who is a sad faced, pretty girl of less than 18, told a straight-forward story of her downfall and positively asserted that she had never been criminally intimate with any person, but the defendant. He swore as positively, however, that he had had nothing to do with her and presented several witnesses to prove the girl's bad character, some of which was the most patently perjured that we ever heard. One country hawk swore that he had taken the girl to a hotel at Junction City and although they had each registered in their own names, the proprietor had assigned them to the same room, where they remained for 12 hours. He couldn't tell however what year it was and anything further than that it was tolerably cold weather. The grand jury ought to investigate them all. Col. Welch, who assisted County Attorney J. B. Paxton in the prosecution, completely riddled his testimony and that of the other witnesses whom he declared his client would not "wipo her feet on." Mr. P. M. McRoberts, for the defendant, handled the case with much skill and made a strong speech in his behalf. The baby was filed as an exhibit in the case and there was a difference of opinion as to its likeness to the defendant, who is a student at the Winchester College. We of course do not intend to express an opinion in the case, but we do say in all such cases that the late illustrious Mark Jarman was right when he declared that "the suicide should be made to support the child when it was proved again him." It is enough for a poor girl to suffer the shame and disgrace without having to work herself to death to provide for her illegitimate offspring.

WILL ENTERTAIN THEM.—Nearly all of the ladies and a number of the gentlemen appointed on the committee to arrange for the coming of Capt. Henry Wygant's battalion from Central University, to-morrow, were present at the meeting Tuesday and great interest was manifested. On motion Mr. W. H. Shanks was called to the chair and after much discussion in which the ladies took prominent part, it was decided to spread the visitors a picnic dinner and entertain them in every way that will add to their pleasure. To this end the following young ladies were appointed a committee to solicit contributions of food and money for the dinner: Misses Annie Alcorn, Linda Owsley, Dollie McRoberts, Jennie Warren, Ethyl Beazley, Fannie Shanks, Belle Denny and Nannie VanDever. The committee to have charge of the dinner on the grounds will be Mesdames J. W. Alcorn, A. W. Carpenter, Mildred Beazley, J. N. Menefee, Bettie Cobb McKinney and Forestus Reid. Mayor J. N. Menefee was appointed a committee of one to prepare the grounds and erect tables, etc. All who take part are expected to wear the college colors, Cream and Crimson, and all who have conveyances were requested to be at the depot with them to meet the ladies of the party. The entertainment committee will be at the depot and during the day will do all in its power to make it socially pleasant for our guests. W. P. Walton was appointed to notify Capt. Wygant of the action of the meeting and it then adjourned.

The drill and picnic grounds will likely be in Mr. W. P. Tate's woodland.

The nicest shower for nearly two months fell yesterday but it was not much more than a dust layer. Fair and cool is the forecast for today.

The council did not extend the time for the payment of city taxes so you must settle with me by June 1st or pay the six per cent penalty. O. J. Newland.

Mr. C. J. Newland is the boss gardener. He has on exhibition an asparagus 5 1/2 inches in circumference. The largest one on exhibition at the World's Fair measured only 4 1/2 inches.

Mr. Thomas Ray, the aged father of Mr. James Ray, of Kingsville, was tried before Judge Davidson and a jury yesterday and declared to be of unsound mind. He was ordered to the asylum at Lexington.

Justice people will run an excursion to Louisville Sunday, passing here at 8:15 a. m., returning leave Louisville at 11 p. m. Fare for the round-trip $2. D. E. Tyler, express agent at Jellico, was here yesterday advertising the excursion.

JUDGE SHELTON is paying no attention to Judge Davidson's refusal to grant him State license after the board of trustees at Row and had said he should have them and he had tendered the money to him. His attorney advised him to run his saloon while open and he is doing so.

ELECTION OF COUNCILMEN.—At an adjourned meeting yesterday afternoon Mr. W. H. Higgins was elected to fill the vacancy in the board caused by the death of Mr. W. L. Withers and Mr. John M. Stone was chosen in the place of Councilman T. H. Roney, who resigned. A majority of the board is said to favor liquor license, but for satisfactory reasons will not vote for it.

The court of appeals, though deciding 50 per cent. more cases than ever before, is further behind in its work than it was a year ago. It has on hand over 300 cases, all of which have long been ready for final action.

Some farmers are feeling their fattening cattle corn just the same as if it was winter time. The drought has cut short the grass and made this necessary. Unless it rains soon farmers will be compelled to ship early in June, something very unusual in this locality.—George-town Times.
